

Name _____

Presidents & Politics

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What does the executive branch do?
 - a) Enforces laws and leads the country
 - b) Writes new laws
 - c) Decides if laws are fair
 - d) Creates taxes

2. What do some Democrats believe about presidential power?
 - a) The president should not be allowed to make decisions
 - b) The president should be removed from government
 - c) Congress should make all decisions
 - d) The president should have enough power to solve problems

3. What do some Republicans believe about presidential power?
 - a) The president should have unlimited power
 - b) The president should use executive orders often
 - c) The president's power should be limited
 - d) The president should be the only leader in the U.S.

4. Which president created the New Deal?
 - a) Ronald Reagan
 - b) Barack Obama
 - c) Franklin D. Roosevelt
 - d) Donald Trump

5. Why do people argue about how much power the president should have?
 - a) Some people want a king instead of a president
 - b) Some think the president should have strong powers, while others think power should be limited
 - c) Only the president should make laws
 - d) The president is more powerful than the government

