

Name _____

Presidents & Protection

Multiple Choice Questions

1. Which federal agency helps protect travelers in airports?
 - a) FBI
 - b) CDC
 - c) TSA
 - d) FEMA

2. Why did President George W. Bush create the Department of Homeland Security?
 - a) To help build new roads
 - b) To protect the country after the 9/11 attacks
 - c) To make more schools
 - d) To create new jobs for teachers

3. What does FEMA do in emergencies?
 - a) Investigates crimes
 - b) Provides food, water, and shelter after disasters
 - c) Makes sure airplanes fly on time
 - d) Sends people to space

4. Which agency gives health advice and helps prevent diseases?
 - a) CDC
 - b) FBI
 - c) TSA
 - d) DEA

5. How does the president affect federal agencies?
 - a) The president teaches people how to use the agencies
 - b) The president writes new laws for agencies
 - c) The president works as a police officer
 - d) The president chooses the leaders of these agencies

