

Name _____

Primary vs. Secondary Lymphoid Organs: Your Body's Lymphatic Command Centers

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What is the primary function of primary lymphoid organs?
  - a) Filtering lymph
  - b) Initiating immune responses
  - c) Developing and maturing lymphocytes
  - d) Removing damaged blood cells

2. Which secondary lymphoid organ is involved in monitoring the contents of the small intestine for potential threats?
  - a) Lymph nodes
  - b) Spleen
  - c) Tonsils
  - d) Peyer's patches

3. Where is the thymus gland located in the body?
  - a) Above the heart
  - b) In the bone marrow
  - c) In the throat
  - d) In the small intestine

4. What is the primary role of secondary lymphoid organs?
  - a) Developing lymphocytes
  - b) Maturing white blood cells
  - c) Initiating and executing immune responses
  - d) Filtering blood

5. Which lymphoid organ serves as a reservoir of blood cells and filters the blood?
  - a) Lymph nodes
  - b) Bone marrow
  - c) Spleen
  - d) Thymus

