

Name _____

Leading the Way: The Role of School Principals and Administrators

Short Answer Key

1. The primary responsibility of a School Principal or Administrator is to oversee school operations and create a positive learning environment.
2. One important skill that School Principals and Administrators need to have is leadership skills.
3. A School Principal or Administrator might attend meetings with parents in the afternoon.
4. Problem-solving skills are important for School Principals and Administrators because they often encounter challenges and must find solutions.
5. School Principals and Administrators contribute to creating a positive learning environment by implementing policies, supporting teachers, and addressing student concerns.

