

Name _____

Proctor's Choice

Multiple Choice Questions

1. Why did John Proctor feel guilty?
 - a) He stole from his neighbors.
 - b) He had an affair with Abigail Williams.
 - c) He helped Abigail accuse people of witchcraft.
 - d) He was secretly practicing witchcraft.

2. What made John Proctor finally decide to tell the truth?
 - a) He wanted to prove he was the best farmer in Salem.
 - b) He was forced to by the judges.
 - c) He couldn't let innocent people suffer because of lies.
 - d) Abigail promised to protect him if he stayed silent.

3. What choice did Proctor face at the end of the play?
 - a) Confessing to being a witch or being hanged.
 - b) Running away from Salem or staying to help Abigail.
 - c) Becoming a judge or staying a farmer.
 - d) Accusing his wife of witchcraft or going to jail.

4. Why did Proctor refuse to sign his confession?
 - a) He wanted to protect his reputation and personal integrity.
 - b) He knew the court would never believe him.
 - c) Abigail told him not to sign it.
 - d) He was planning to escape later.

5. What lesson does The Crucible teach about integrity?
 - a) Guilt is something people should ignore.
 - b) It is always best to protect your reputation, no matter the cost.
 - c) Lying is the best way to survive.
 - d) Telling the truth is important, even when it is difficult.

