

Name _____

Proctor's Choice

Short Answer Key

1. John Proctor felt guilty because he had an affair and knew Abigail was lying.
2. Abigail lied about witchcraft to gain power and get rid of people she didn't like.
3. Proctor chose to die rather than sign a false confession because he valued honesty.
4. His struggle shows that standing up for the truth is more important than protecting one's reputation.
5. The play teaches that difficult choices should be made based on what is right, not just what is easy.

