

Name _____

The Prodigy's Dilemma

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What were Emily's talents from a young age?
 - a) Painting and drawing
 - b) Playing the piano and solving math problems
 - c) Soccer and swimming
 - d) Writing and storytelling

2. How did Emily's parents and teachers react to her talents?
 - a) They were worried and tried to discourage her.
 - b) They marveled at her gifts and had high expectations.
 - c) They ignored her talents.
 - d) They were indifferent.

3. How did Emily's days become as she grew older?
 - a) Filled with leisure and play
 - b) A blur of academic pursuits and extracurricular activities
 - c) Spent in front of the TV
 - d) Focused on her social life

4. What caused Emily to feel isolated and anxious?
 - a) Her love for playing the piano
 - b) The pressure to succeed and meet expectations
 - c) Her hobbies and interests
 - d) Spending time with friends

5. How did Emily's parents react when she talked to them about her feelings?
 - a) They dismissed her concerns.
 - b) They were understanding and agreed to give her space.
 - c) They pushed her to work even harder.
 - d) They punished her for speaking up.

