

Name _____

The Science Project Fiasco

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What was the seventh-grade science class assigned to do by Mr. Anderson?
 - a) Write a scientific research paper
 - b) Create a work of art
 - c) Conduct a challenging experiment
 - d) Solve a math problem

2. How did the students react when they received their experiment challenges?
 - a) They were terrified and refused to participate.
 - b) They were excited and couldn't wait to start.
 - c) They were confused and had no idea what to do.
 - d) They were indifferent and didn't care about the project.

3. What happened when the group working on the glitter volcano mixed the ingredients?
 - a) It erupted glitter as expected.
 - b) It exploded, causing a mess of glitter and sticky liquid.
 - c) Nothing happened; the experiment failed.
 - d) They accidentally spilled the glitter.

4. What was the result of the potato-powered lightbulb experiment?
 - a) The classroom smelled like fresh potatoes.
 - b) The LED bulb lit up, but it emitted a burnt potato odor.
 - c) The experiment was a complete success with no issues.
 - d) The potato exploded, leaving a mess.

5. How did Mr. Anderson react when the students presented their experiments?
 - a) He scolded them for their messy and absurd experiments.
 - b) He laughed and praised their creativity and adaptability.
 - c) He canceled the presentations due to the mess in the classroom.
 - d) He gave them all failing grades.

