

Name _____

Respect for Property

Multiple-Choice Questions

1. What does "respect for property" mean?
  - a) Sharing all your belongings with others.
  - b) Avoiding public spaces entirely.
  - c) Only using things that belong to you.
  - d) Taking care of things that belong to others.

2. Why is it important to respect a library book?
  - a) So the librarian doesn't get angry.
  - b) To show you care about reading.
  - c) To ensure the book is available for others.
  - d) To avoid paying a late fee.

3. What happens when someone litters on the playground?
  - a) The litter disappears over time.
  - b) The playground becomes less pleasant for everyone.
  - c) It helps the ground become more colorful.
  - d) The school rewards the person for creativity.

4. Which of the following is an example of respecting property?
  - a) Leaving a park cleaner than you found it.
  - b) Borrowing a toy and breaking it.
  - c) Writing your name on a school desk.
  - d) Keeping items you borrowed for yourself.

5. What should you do if you accidentally damage something you borrowed?
  - a) Hide it so no one finds out.
  - b) Tell the owner and try to fix it.
  - c) Pretend it wasn't you.
  - d) Return it and say nothing.

