

Name _____

Respect for Property

Open-Ended Questions Answer Key

1. Example Answer: I once borrowed a video game from my friend. I made sure to handle it carefully and return it without any scratches. It made me feel proud because my friend thanked me for being responsible.
2. Example Answer: Some people might not respect public property because they don't think it belongs to them. They might change if they understood how damaging things affects everyone and if they saw others taking care of these spaces.
3. Example Answer: I can lead by example, like picking up trash in the park. I could also talk to my friends about why it's important to take care of shared spaces.
4. Example Answer: Respecting property keeps the community clean and safe. It also helps everyone trust each other, which makes people feel happier and more connected.

