

Name _____

The Bill of Rights: Protecting Your Freedoms

Open-Ended Response Questions

1. Imagine you are a citizen of the United States in the 18th century. Explain why you believe the Bill of Rights is necessary for protecting your freedoms and rights.
2. Discuss a real-life example or case where one of the amendments in the Bill of Rights played a significant role in protecting an individual's rights or ensuring justice.
3. Do you think the Bill of Rights is still relevant and effective in today's society? Explain your viewpoint and provide examples to support your argument.
4. Reflect on the relationship between the Bill of Rights and the principles upon which the United States was founded, such as liberty, justice, and equality. How do these amendments uphold these principles?

