

Name _____

Pruning Power

Open-Ended Answers

1. Using sharp, clean tools helps avoid hurting the plant and spreading disease.
2. Pruning removes old parts, allowing the plant to focus energy on new, healthy growth.
3. Removing these parts prevents diseases from spreading and keeps the plant healthy.
4. Pruning shapes the plant and prevents it from getting too big or messy, leading to more blooms and a nicer look

