

Name _____

Discovering Public Buildings

Multiple Choice

1. Which type of public building is a hub for social, recreational, and cultural activities?

- a) Schools
- b) Libraries
- c) Community centers
- d) Hospitals

2. What is the primary function of government offices in public buildings?

- a) Offering medical care
- b) Providing access to knowledge
- c) Managing administrative and bureaucratic functions
- d) Exhibiting collections of artifacts

3. Which step in the construction of public buildings involves the selection of an appropriate location?

- a) Foundation
- b) Framing
- c) Site selection
- d) Inspections

4. What is the primary purpose of museums in public buildings?

- a) Providing medical care
- b) Offering educational resources
- c) Fostering a sense of community
- d) Exhibiting collections of artifacts

5. What essential service is provided by hospitals in public buildings?

- a) Legal services
- b) Education
- c) Medical care
- d) Fitness classes

