

Name _____

The Day a Puppy Became President

Short Answer Questions Answers

1. Charlie's campaign slogan was "A bone in every bowl and a ball in every yard!"
2. Mayor Charlie's leadership brought joy, celebration, and humor to Barkington, making it a delightful era in the town's history.
3. Mayor Charlie resolved the squirrel negotiations by holding a summit with the squirrel community, and they agreed that squirrels could enjoy acorns in peace as long as they participated in occasional photo-ops with the town's dogs.
4. Charlie's appearance on a popular talk show was memorable because he simply barked happily into the microphone, bringing laughter to the audience.
5. The citizens of Barkington learned that unexpected and unconventional leaders, like a puppy, can bring joy and delight to everyday life.

