

Name _____

Exploring the Purpose and Analysis of 'To Kill a Mockingbird'

Open-Ended Response Questions

1. Discuss the impact of racism on the characters in "To Kill a Mockingbird," including Tom Robinson, Mayella Ewell, and Boo Radley.
2. Explore the character development of Scout throughout the novel. How does she evolve from a curious child to a more empathetic and understanding young girl?
3. How does the novel encourage readers to empathize with characters like Boo Radley, who are misunderstood and unfairly judged by society?
4. In your opinion, why is it essential to continue reading and studying "To Kill a Mockingbird" in schools and society today? What lessons can we still learn from the book?

