

Name _____

The Curious Case of the Puzzling Murder

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What fascinated Sarah about the small town of Willowbrook?
  - a) Its quiet and quaint atmosphere
  - b) The unsolved mystery of a murder
  - c) The friendly and welcoming residents
  - d) Its beautiful natural scenery

2. Who was the victim of the mysterious murder in Willowbrook?
  - a) Sarah
  - b) Mr. Theodore Finch
  - c) A townspeople
  - d) An unknown person

3. What did Sarah do to uncover the truth about the murder?
  - a) She moved out of Willowbrook.
  - b) She ignored the case.
  - c) She researched, interviewed witnesses, and analyzed evidence.
  - d) She warned the townspeople.

4. What effect did Sarah's obsession with the case have on her personal life?
  - a) It improved her friendships.
  - b) It had no effect on her personal life.
  - c) It caused her to neglect her friendships and daily routines.
  - d) It made her move away from Willowbrook.

5. What did Sarah discover as she got closer to the truth of the mystery?
  - a) The case was simple and straightforward.
  - b) She found no evidence or clues.
  - c) She stumbled upon hidden secrets and faced threats.
  - d) The townspeople were eager to help her.

