

Name _____

The Curious Case of the Puzzling Murder

Short Answer Key

1. Sarah was motivated to investigate the unsolved murder by her fascination with mysteries and her desire to uncover the truth.
2. The victim of the mysterious murder was Mr. Theodore Finch, known for his generosity and kindness in the town.
3. Sarah's obsession with the case caused her to neglect her friendships and daily routines, as she spent countless hours researching and analyzing evidence.
4. As Sarah got closer to uncovering the truth, she faced threats and warnings from unknown adversaries who wanted the case to remain unsolved.
5. The shocking revelation Sarah discovered in her pursuit of the truth challenged the town's history and tested the bonds of its residents, though the exact nature of the revelation is not specified.

