

Name _____

How Does a Raccoon Move?

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What is one way raccoons use their tails when climbing?
 - A) To hold onto branches
 - B) To signal other raccoons
 - C) To scare predators
 - D) To help balance

2. How fast can raccoons run on land?
 - A) 5 miles per hour
 - B) 10 miles per hour
 - C) 15 miles per hour
 - D) 20 miles per hour

3. Why do raccoons swim?
 - A) To cool off
 - B) To cross rivers and find food
 - C) To play with other raccoons
 - D) To avoid climbing

4. What makes raccoons good at climbing?
 - A) Their sharp claws and strong legs
 - B) Their long tails
 - C) Their ability to fly
 - D) Their large size

5. What do raccoons use their front paws for?
 - A) To fly
 - B) To swim
 - C) To grip objects and climb
 - D) To dig tunnels

