

Name _____

Lily's Radiant Poetry

Open-Ended Response Answer Key

1. "Painting skies every hue" means that Lily's words are so vivid and expressive that they can create a wide range of emotions and images in the minds of her readers or listeners. This relates to her poetry as it suggests that her poems are colorful, imaginative, and emotionally impactful.
2. Answers may vary, but students could imagine Lily feeling inspired, happy, or fulfilled when her verses take flight, knowing that her poetry is reaching others.
3. Lily's poetry might inspire and uplift people, make them feel more connected to their emotions, or help them see the beauty in the world. It could also provide comfort and solace to those who read it.
4. Lily is described as "bright" in the poem because her poetry is described as pure, true, and full of light. This tells us that she is a positive, creative, and talented individual.

