Kelly and the Cheese Cave Adventure

One rainy day, Billy and his dog, Buddy, decided to have some fun. They put on their raincoats and went outside. The rain was so heavy that it made puddles everywhere.

Billy and Buddy started jumping in the puddles and splashing water all around.

Soon, they were joined by their friends, and together, they turned the rainy day into a giant splashy party. They laughed and splashed until the sun came out, and the puddles disappeared.
