

Name _____

Raphael: The Master of Renaissance Art

Open-Ended Response Answer Key

1. Answers will vary, but students may seek advice on artistic techniques, the creative process, or the inspiration behind his works.
2. Answers will vary, but students may discuss differences in style, subject matter, and artistic innovations between Raphael and Leonardo da Vinci.
3. Answers will vary, but students may describe the scene and emotions they would convey as part of the artwork, reflecting on the artistic experience.
4. Raphael's work continues to inspire and influence artists in the modern era through its timeless beauty, innovative techniques, and ability to convey human emotions, making it a source of inspiration for artists seeking to capture the human spirit in their own work.

