

Name _____

The Reality Show Rivals

Open Ended Questions Answers

1. Answers may vary, but students should provide a detailed strategy for one of the challenges and explain how they would stand out from the other contestants.
2. Humor in reality television often comes from unexpected situations and the interactions between contestants. "The Reality Show Rivals" highlighted humor through the contestants' mishaps, rivalries, and comedic moments during the challenges.
3. Answers may vary, but students should justify their choice of the most memorable and entertaining performance, providing examples from the story.
4. The unique mix of contestants from different reality shows contributed to the entertainment value by bringing together diverse personalities and talents, creating unexpected and entertaining interactions and conflicts.

