

Name _____

Reality TV Drama

Short Answer Questions Answers

1. Mildred is a sweet grandma known for her pies. She participates in the fake feud with Mr. Jenkins because she is asked to create conflict for the reality show, even though it goes against her nature.
2. Sarah, Alex, and Brian are asked to create a fake love triangle for the reality show, which puts strain on their friendship as they struggle to fake romantic feelings for one another.
3. As the drama on the reality show intensifies, the townspeople realize the negative impact it is having on their community and relationships. They become disheartened by the destructive nature of the manufactured drama.
4. The townspeople revolt against the reality TV crew by disrupting the filming, refusing to play their assigned roles, and demanding that the crew leave Willowville.
5. The townspeople learn the valuable lesson of prioritizing real relationships and the destructive power of manufactured drama, realizing that genuine connections are more important than fleeting fame and entertainment.

