

Name _____

Fashioning a Rebellion

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What inspired Luna to challenge the fashion norms in Sartoria?
 - A) Her parents' strict adherence to fashion rules.
 - B) Her desire to become a renowned designer.
 - C) Her belief in the power of fashion for self-expression.
 - D) Peer pressure from her classmates.

2. What was the name of the dress Luna created to symbolize her rebellion?
 - A) The Trendsetter Gown
 - B) The Conformity Dress
 - C) The Freedom Gown
 - D) The Uniform Outfit

3. How did Luna's rebellion impact the city of Sartoria?
 - A) It led to stricter fashion regulations.
 - B) It caused the Council to tighten its control.
 - C) It resulted in a more diverse and accepting fashion culture.
 - D) It led to a division between young and old citizens.

4. What did the "Fashion Freedom" gatherings primarily aim to achieve?
 - A) Promote conformity in fashion.
 - B) Celebrate individuality in clothing.
 - C) Encourage strict adherence to Council rules.
 - D) Raise funds for fashion charities.

5. What happened to Luna's iconic Freedom Gown in the end?
 - A) It was destroyed during a protest.
 - B) It was hidden away in Luna's closet.
 - C) It was displayed in the city's fashion museum.
 - D) It was sold to a wealthy collector.

