

Name _____

Harmonizing House and Senate Bills: The Process of Reconciling Differences

Short Answer

1. What is the role of the conference committee in the legislative process?
2. Why is it important for both chambers to approve the conference report without further amendments?
3. What happens if the President vetoes a bill that has been approved by Congress?
4. Describe the conference committee's responsibility in reconciling differences between House and Senate bills.
5. How does the reconciled bill become law after it is approved by the conference committee and both chambers?

