

Name _____

Dreams of the Red Dress

Short Answer Key

1. The central message is that the girl in the red dress dreams of dancing in the city and pursuing her dreams despite life's challenges.
2. The poem describes the girl's attitude as determined and full of hope, with a strong desire to achieve her dreams.
3. The color red represents the girl's fiery spirit and her dreams, serving as a symbol of her determination and passion.
4. The poem conveys this idea by showing that the girl in the red dress continues to pursue her dreams with determination, no matter the challenges she faces.
5. We can learn that pursuing our dreams with determination and passion can lead us toward a future filled with hope and possibilities.

