

Name _____

The Red Shoes

Open-Ended Response Questions

1. Discuss the significance of the red shoes in the story. How did they represent more than just footwear for Karen?
2. Analyze the transformation of Karen's character throughout the story. How did her experience with the red shoes change her perspective on beauty and material possessions?
3. Reflect on the role of repentance and seeking forgiveness in "The Red Shoes." How did Karen's actions and prayers lead to the resolution of her predicament?
4. Explore the theme of societal judgment in the story. How did the villagers react to Karen's uncontrollable dancing, and what does it reveal about their attitudes towards her?

