

Name _____

The Red Shoes

Short Answer Key

1. Karen was compelled to buy the red shoes because of their uniqueness and her love for dancing.
2. The consequence of wearing the red shoes for Karen was that she couldn't stop dancing, and they controlled her movements.
3. Karen managed to stop the red shoes from dancing by praying for forgiveness and seeking the aid of the spiritual leader at the church.
4. Karen learned the lesson that true beauty came from within, and material possessions should never come before one's character.
5. The people in the village stared at Karen with a mix of wonder and fear as she danced uncontrollably.

