

Name _____

Improving Access to Affordable Housing: A Path to Reducing Homelessness and Poverty

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What is the primary goal of affordable housing programs?
  - a) To provide free housing to everyone in need
  - b) To offer financial assistance to developers and landlords
  - c) To build luxury housing for low-income individuals
  - d) To increase the price of housing units

2. How can increasing the supply of affordable housing be achieved?
  - a) By reducing tenant protections
  - b) By limiting the availability of affordable housing
  - c) Through the construction of new units or renovation of existing ones
  - d) By increasing rent rates

3. What is the purpose of zoning and land use policies in relation to affordable housing?
  - a) To encourage the development of affordable housing
  - b) To restrict the construction of affordable housing units
  - c) To create barriers for affordable housing projects
  - d) To promote excessive rent increases

4. How do tenant protections benefit individuals and families in affordable housing?
  - a) By preventing them from accessing housing
  - b) By allowing unjust evictions and rent increases
  - c) By ensuring stable housing and preventing unfair practices
  - d) By limiting the supply of affordable housing

5. Why is combining supportive services with affordable housing important?
  - a) It makes housing unaffordable for those in need.
  - b) It provides luxury amenities to tenants.
  - c) It helps individuals and families break the cycle of poverty and homelessness.
  - d) It increases rent rates for affordable housing units.

