

Name _____

Improving Access to Affordable Housing: A Path to Reducing Homelessness and Poverty

Open-Ended Response Questions

1. Reflect on the importance of affordable housing in addressing homelessness and poverty. What are some potential long-term benefits of improving access to affordable housing for individuals and communities?
2. Consider the role of government and community collaboration in implementing affordable housing initiatives. How can partnerships between different stakeholders contribute to the success of such programs?
3. Discuss the potential challenges and barriers that may arise when trying to increase the supply of affordable housing. How can these challenges be addressed effectively?
4. Share your thoughts on how art, like Vincent van Gogh's, can inspire resilience and creativity in the face of personal challenges. How can artistic expression contribute to personal growth and societal understanding?

