

Name _____

Letters from the Regency Garden

Short Answer Key

1. Mr. Bumblethorp arrived in a hot air balloon and made the event extraordinary by offering the guests an unexpected and whimsical adventure.
2. The landscape viewed from the hot air balloon included rolling hills, meandering rivers, and the countryside, all bathed in the warm, golden glow of the setting sun.
3. The guests felt overwhelmed with wonder and gratitude about their hot air balloon journey.
4. The letter conveyed that people in the Regency era were open to embracing unexpected adventures and moments of whimsy.
5. The guests likely decided to participate in the hot air balloon adventure because they were intrigued and awed by Mr. Bumblethorp's eccentricity and the promise of a unique experience.

