

Name _____

Letters from the Regency Garden

Open-Ended Response Answer Key

1. Answers may vary, but students might express feelings of excitement and curiosity about Mr. Bumblethorp's arrival and enthusiasm for the hot air balloon adventure. They could explain that such an unusual experience would be a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity and a chance to create lasting memories.
2. Students might suggest that the memory of the balloon adventure could have a profound impact on the guests, making them more open to embracing unexpected moments and finding wonder in everyday life. It might encourage them to seek out unique experiences and view ordinary events with fresh eyes.
3. Challenges presented by Mr. Bumblethorp's eccentricity could include skepticism from some guests and concerns about safety. Opportunities might involve fostering a sense of community and shared adventure among the participants.
4. In their view, this story illustrates the importance of embracing unexpected moments and adventures because they can add excitement, wonder, and richness to our lives. Regardless of the time period, such experiences can be sources of joy, gratitude, and personal growth.

