

Name _____

Koalas and Their Relationships with Other Species

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What type of relationship do koalas have with eucalyptus trees?
 - a) Mutualism
 - b) Competition
 - c) Parasitism
 - d) Commensalism

2. Which of the following best describes parasitism?
 - a) Both species benefit
 - b) One species is harmed while the other benefits
 - c) Neither species benefits
 - d) Both species are harmed

3. What is an example of a parasite that affects koalas?
 - a) Chlamydia bacteria
 - b) Bees
 - c) Birds
 - d) Eucalyptus trees

4. How do koalas help the environment?
 - a) By protecting other animals
 - b) By cleaning water
 - c) By planting seeds
 - d) By pruning eucalyptus trees

5. Do koalas form mutualistic relationships with other species?
 - a) Yes, with birds
 - b) Yes, with eucalyptus trees
 - c) No, they mostly live alone
 - d) Yes, with ticks

