

Name _____

Do Komodo Dragons Form Relationships with Other Species?

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What is mutualism?
 - a) When both species benefit
 - b) When only one species benefits
 - c) When both species are harmed
 - d) When neither species benefits

2. How do birds help Komodo dragons?
 - a) They warn them of danger
 - b) They eat parasites off their skin
 - c) They hunt prey for them
 - d) They share nests

3. What type of relationship do ticks have with Komodo dragons?
 - a) Mutualism
 - b) Commensalism
 - c) Parasitism
 - d) Friendship

4. Why do scavengers benefit when Komodo dragons hunt?
 - a) They help the dragon hunt
 - b) They eat leftover food
 - c) They scare away predators
 - d) They clean the area

5. What describes how Komodo dragons typically live?
 - a) In groups
 - b) In families
 - c) In pairs
 - d) Alone

