

Name _____

Does a Capybara Form Relationships with Other Species?

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What is an example of a mutualistic relationship involving capybaras?

- A. Jaguars hunting capybaras
- B. Humans farming capybaras
- C. Frogs sitting on capybaras' backs
- D. Birds eating ticks from capybaras' fur

2. What type of relationship benefits frogs sitting on a capybara?

- A. Commensalism
- B. Mutualism
- C. Parasitism
- D. Predation

3. Why do capybaras stay in groups?

- A. To share food
- B. To warn each other of predators
- C. To help birds find ticks
- D. To carry frogs and turtles

4. Which predator hunts capybaras?

- A. Cattle egrets
- B. Turtles
- C. Jaguars
- D. Frogs

5. How do humans interact with capybaras?

- A. They hunt capybaras in groups
- B. They raise them as pets or farm animals
- C. They help capybaras avoid predators
- D. They ride on capybaras' backs

