Friendship Magic: Building Relationships with Ease

Short Answer Key

1. Answers may vary, but an example could be: "What do you enjoy doing in your free time?"
2. Patience is important because building relationships takes time, and you may not connect with someone instantly.
3. Showing respect can include listening to their opinions, not making fun of them, and being considerate of their feelings.
4. You should address conflicts calmly and respectfully, working together to find solutions.
5. Staying connected can involve exchanging contact information, planning activities together, and maintaining regular communication.
