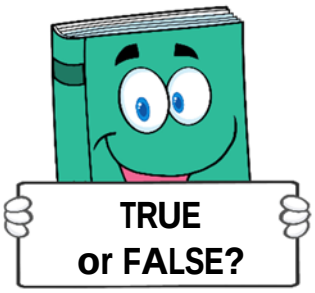
Relative Adverbs



1.	A relative adverb is an adverb that introduces an adjective clause.	TRUE	FALSE
2.	The relative adverbs are who, what, where, when, and why.	TRUE	FALSE
3.	An adjective clause begins with a relative adverb and modifies a noun.	TRUE	FALSE
4.	A restrictive clause containing an adjective phrase identifies the noun it modifies.	TRUE	FALSE
5.	A non-restrictive clause headed by a relative adverb just gives additional information that does not directly modify a noun.	TRUE	FALSE
6.	Restrictive clauses are set off by a comma.	TRUE	FALSE
7.	Non-restrictive adjective clauses do not require a comma.	TRUE	FALSE
8.	A relative adverb modifies a verb.	TRUE	FALSE