

Name _____

Rembrandt: The Master of Baroque Art

Short Answer Key

1. Rembrandt received his formal training in painting at the University of Leiden.
2. Rembrandt's artistic style is characterized by his remarkable use of light and shadow, also known as chiaroscuro.
3. "The Night Watch" is considered significant due to its dynamic composition and dramatic use of light.
4. In his self-portraits, Rembrandt portrayed himself with honesty and raw emotion, often depicting his own aging process.
5. Rembrandt's lasting impact on the world of art includes inspiring generations of artists with his use of light, emotion, and dedication to realism.

