

Name _____

Remembering Stargirl

Multiple Choice Questions

1. How is Stargirl mainly told?
  - a) Through a series of diary entries
  - b) In flashbacks from Leo's perspective
  - c) From Stargirl's point of view
  - d) As a newspaper report

2. Why does the use of flashbacks help the reader connect with Leo?
  - a) It shows his feelings looking back on past events
  - b) It keeps the story in the present tense
  - c) It focuses only on what happened at school
  - d) It hides Leo's emotions from the reader

3. What does Leo realize when looking back at his memories?
  - a) That Stargirl was just an ordinary student
  - b) That he was right to ask Stargirl to change
  - c) That he should have accepted Stargirl as she was
  - d) That he never really cared about Stargirl

4. How does the mix of past and present affect the way the story is told?
  - a) It makes the story confusing and hard to follow
  - b) It helps the reader understand Leo's emotions over time
  - c) It takes away the excitement of the story
  - d) It only focuses on the sad parts

5. What is one theme the flashbacks help show?
  - a) The importance of school rules
  - b) That popularity is the key to happiness
  - c) That it's always better to fit in
  - d) The lasting impact of unforgettable people

