

Name _____

E-Learning Adventures: A Sonnet on Remote Education

Short Answer Key

1. The challenges mentioned in the poem regarding remote and online education include tech glitches and distractions.
2. According to the poem, students miss the warmth and face-to-face interactions of traditional, in-person classrooms.
3. The poem characterizes the process of adapting to remote education as necessary and mentions that students learn to adapt and bridge the gap.
4. The overall message conveyed by the poem about remote education is that it comes with challenges but also offers the opportunity to adapt and continue learning in a different way.

