

Name _____

Repeat & Read

Multiple Choice Questions

1. Why does Chicka Chicka Boom Boom use repeated phrases?
 - a) To make the story longer.
 - b) To help young readers remember words and patterns.
 - c) To confuse readers.
 - d) To focus only on uppercase letters.

2. What phrase is repeated throughout the book?
 - a) "Climb the tree, little letters."
 - b) "Chicka Chicka Boom Boom! Will there be enough room?"
 - c) "The letters ran away."
 - d) "The coconut tree is falling!"

3. How does repetition help children recognize letters?
 - a) It makes learning letters fun and memorable.
 - b) It forces children to read silently.
 - c) It makes the letters disappear.
 - d) It makes words harder to pronounce.

4. Why do children enjoy chanting along with the book?
 - a) The book has no rhythm or rhyme.
 - b) They have to memorize every letter.
 - c) The repetition makes it easier to predict words and phrases.
 - d) The letters do not appear in order.

5. How does repetition help with comprehension?
 - a) It only teaches uppercase letters.
 - b) It makes the story harder to understand.
 - c) It removes words from the story.
 - d) It helps readers recognize story patterns.

