

Name _____

Repeating Lessons

Multiple Choice Questions

1. Why does the Little Red Hen repeat the same question throughout the story?
 - a) She wants to trick the other animals.
 - b) She enjoys asking questions.
 - c) She is unsure of what to do next.
 - d) She hopes they will change their minds.

2. What phrase do the animals repeat each time the Hen asks for help?
 - a) "Maybe later."
 - b) "I am too busy."
 - c) "Not I."
 - d) "I will help next time."

3. How does repetition help the reader understand the story's message?
 - a) It makes the story longer.
 - b) It shows how hard the Hen works and how lazy the others are.
 - c) It makes the Hen look selfish.
 - d) It helps the animals get more food.

4. Why do the animals change their answer at the end of the story?
 - a) They feel bad for not helping.
 - b) They finally want to work.
 - c) They want to eat the bread.
 - d) They are forced to apologize.

5. What lesson does the story teach?
 - a) Hard work and responsibility lead to rewards.
 - b) Asking for help is a bad idea.
 - c) Sharing is always the most important thing.
 - d) Baking bread is difficult.

