

Name _____

Republic: The Power of the People

Short Answer

1. Explain the concept of representation in a republic and how it benefits citizens.
2. How does accountability work in a republic, and why is it important for the functioning of the government?
3. Provide an example of how partisan politics can impact decision-making in a republic.
4. Describe a situation where political gridlock might occur in a republic and its potential consequences.
5. What measures can be taken to address voter apathy and encourage active citizen participation in a republic?

