

Name _____

Core Values of the Republican Party in the United States

Short Answer Key

1. The Republican Party supports limited government intervention to allow for greater personal freedom and economic growth.
2. Individual liberty is considered fundamental because it includes freedoms of speech, religion, and gun ownership, which Republicans believe are the foundation of American democracy.
3. The Republican Party emphasizes national sovereignty and strong border security to protect jobs and national security.
4. The Republican Party often supports conservative positions on social issues such as abortion, marriage, and family values, rooted in religious and cultural beliefs.
5. The appointment of conservative judges is significant for the Republican Party as it aligns with their goal of interpreting the Constitution in a way that reflects original intent.

