

Name _____

Resilient Tribes

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What made survival harder for Native American tribes when settlers arrived?

- A) They were forced to give up their land.
- B) They couldn't grow crops anymore.
- C) They moved to cities.
- D) They stopped using plants for medicine.

2. How did Native Americans preserve their traditions?

- A) By teaching settlers their ways.
- B) By working as translators.
- C) By passing down knowledge about farming and medicine.
- D) By building factories.

3. Who was Chief Joseph?

- A) A settler who helped Native Americans.
- B) A farmer who introduced maize.
- C) A teacher at a boarding school.
- D) A Native American leader who fought to protect his people's land.

4. What role did education play in Native American survival strategies?

- A) It allowed tribes to avoid moving to reservations.
- B) It helped some Native Americans gain new skills to support their communities.
- C) It replaced traditional farming methods.
- D) It ended all cultural traditions.

5. How do Native Americans celebrate their cultures today?

- A) By only farming maize.
- B) By learning European traditions.
- C) Through festivals, languages, and art.
- D) By moving to cities.

