

Name _____

How Does a Rhinoceros Communicate?

Multiple Choice Questions

1. How do rhinos use sounds to communicate?
 - A. By grunting, growling, and snorting
 - B. By whistling and chirping
 - C. By roaring like lions
 - D. By singing songs

2. What is a midden?
 - A. A rhino's home
 - B. A type of tree rhinos rub their horns against
 - C. A pile of dung used to send messages
 - D. A kind of food rhinos eat

3. What does a rhino do when it feels threatened?
 - A. It lies down and hides
 - B. It lowers its head and paws at the ground
 - C. It runs away quietly
 - D. It waves its tail in the air

4. How does a mother rhino show care for her calf?
 - A. By using gentle nudges and staying close
 - B. By spraying urine to warn predators
 - C. By making loud growls to scare other animals
 - D. By creating a midden for the calf

5. What can rhinos learn from smelling a midden?
 - A. The best places to find food
 - B. The size of the rhino's horns
 - C. How far away the nearest water source is
 - D. Information about the rhino that left it, like its age or gender

