

Name _____

Do Rhinoceroses Form Relationships with Other Species?

Multiple Choice Questions

1. What type of bird helps rhinos by eating ticks and warning them of danger?
 - A. Eagle
 - B. Sparrow
 - C. Parrot
 - D. Oxpecker

2. How do oxpeckers warn rhinos about danger?
 - A. By chirping softly
 - B. By making loud calls
 - C. By flapping their wings
 - D. By pecking the rhino's skin

3. What is a parasitic relationship?
 - A. When both species benefit
 - B. When one species benefits and the other is harmed
 - C. When neither species benefits
 - D. When both species are harmed

4. How does rolling in mud help rhinos?
 - A. It cools their skin and helps protect them from parasites
 - B. It scares away oxpeckers
 - C. It helps them move faster
 - D. It allows them to dig for food

5. What kind of relationship is it when small animals use rhino trails without affecting the rhino?
 - A. Mutualism
 - B. Parasitism
 - C. Commensalism
 - D. Competition

