

Name _____

Rhyme Time

Multiple Choice Questions

1. Why is Dr. Seuss's use of rhyme important in the story?
 - a) It helps readers understand the Cat's personality.
 - b) It makes the story feel alive and engaging.
 - c) It explains why the Fish doesn't like the Cat.
 - d) It creates a sad and serious tone.

2. What kind of rhythm does Dr. Seuss use in the story?
 - a) A random, unpredictable rhythm.
 - b) A slow and steady rhythm.
 - c) An anapestic tetrameter rhythm.
 - d) A rhythm with no beats at all.

3. How does rhyme help develop the Cat's personality?
 - a) The rhymes make him seem worried and serious.
 - b) The rhymes show that he enjoys fun and silliness.
 - c) The rhymes make him seem like a rule-follower.
 - d) The rhymes show that he is a quiet and shy character.

4. Why does the Fish interrupt the rhyme at times?
 - a) To create tension and remind the reader of consequences.
 - b) To show how excited the Fish is.
 - c) To explain the rules of the house.
 - d) To add more rhymes to the story.

5. What effect does rhythm have on the story?
 - a) It makes the story feel slow and calm.
 - b) It shows the reader that rules are important.
 - c) It makes the story confusing for young readers.
 - d) It keeps the reader focused and engaged.

