

Name _____

The Rhythms of Harlem

Multiple Choice Questions

1. In which decade did Jamal live in the neighborhood of Harlem?
 - a) The 1960s
 - b) The 1920s
 - c) The 1980s
 - d) The 1950s

2. What did Jamal discover in a second-hand store that sparked his passion for music?
 - a) A piano
 - b) A saxophone
 - c) A worn-out trumpet
 - d) A vintage record player

3. Who recognized Jamal's talent and became his mentor?
 - a) Duke Ellington
 - b) Mr. Ellis
 - c) Louis Armstrong
 - d) Ella Fitzgerald

4. What did Jamal's trumpet become for him as he honed his skills?
 - a) A decoration for his room
 - b) A souvenir from his travels
 - c) His voice and a way to express himself
 - d) A reminder of his childhood

5. Where did Jamal get the opportunity to perform, and how did the audience react to his music?
 - a) He performed on the streets of Harlem, and the audience was indifferent.
 - b) He performed at the Apollo Theater, and the audience applauded loudly.
 - c) He performed in a small cafe, and the audience left without listening.
 - d) He performed at a school talent show, and the audience booed him.

