

Name _____

Gerhard Richter: Mastering the Art of Abstraction

Multiple Choice Questions

1. Where was Gerhard Richter born?
  - a) Paris, France
  - b) Dresden, Germany
  - c) New York City, USA
  - d) London, England
2. What art movement had a significant influence on Gerhard Richter's early work?
  - a) Cubism
  - b) Impressionism
  - c) Abstract Expressionism
  - d) Surrealism
3. Richter's "Color Charts" challenge viewers to explore:
  - a) The relationships between colors and emotions
  - b) Realistic representations of people and objects
  - c) Historical events through abstract art
  - d) The use of photographic techniques in painting
4. Which of the following techniques is associated with Gerhard Richter's "Abstract Paintings"?
  - a) Blurring photographs
  - b) Photorealistic portraits
  - c) Gestural brushwork and vibrant colors
  - d) Sculpting with clay
5. What does Gerhard Richter's "Blur" and "Squeegee" technique involve?
  - a) Using a magnifying glass to paint intricate details
  - b) Applying layers of paint and scraping the surface with a squeegee
  - c) Creating collages from various materials
  - d) Drawing intricate patterns with a fine-tip pen

